

BIO

Boydat Fuiava was born in Hawaii and raised in Samoa and New Zealand. Throughout 2018-2019, his art journey was ignited by the famous Mangaka, Eichiro Oda, and he began studying art under Frank and Julie Woodward, learning the human figure and visual dynamism. He is now with artists—Jeff Merrill, Jacob Jackson and Jihae Kwon guiding him through a degree in Painting and Illustration at Brigham Young University-Hawaii, exploring themes of culture, identity, and artistic fundamentals. In 2025, he participated in the Charcoal Figure Drawing Art Exhibition at the Mckay Gallery. He is expected to receive a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree from the mentioned institution in 2028.